WILDLIFE RESERVE

Come meet our animal mothers and their children!

African Lion

(Wild Africa, Singapore Zoo)

Our littlest lion was born on 23 Oct 2020 to mum Kayla. Simba loves playing with mum and exploring new things.

Tree Kangaroo

(Australasia, Singapore Zoo)

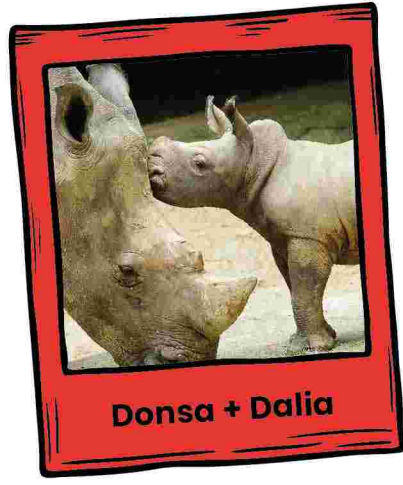

Malolo celebrated his first birthday on 4 Feb 2021. Joeys like Malolo are precious to help boost the population of these endangered animals under human care. In the afternoons, Malolo and mum Nupela take their post-lunch nap on a branch at the back of their exhibit.

Celebes Crested Macaque

(Celebes Crested Macaque Exhibit, Singapore Zoo)

Joyo was born on 3 July 2020 to mum Dewi. His name means victorious in Bahasa Indonesia. Swing by and spot them!

White Rhino

(Wild Africa, Singapore Zoo)

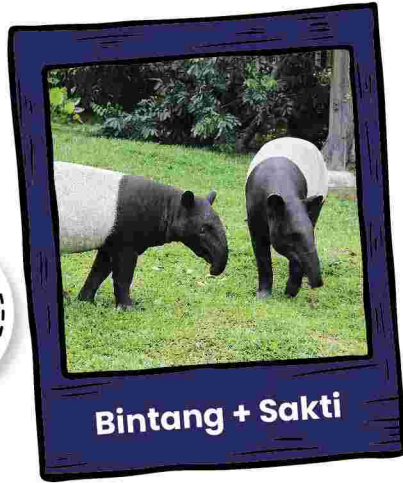

Dalia means gentle and tender in Swahili. The name was chosen by her keepers based on her personality. Dalia is Donsa's 12th calf.

Asian Elephant

(Tram Trail, Night Safari)

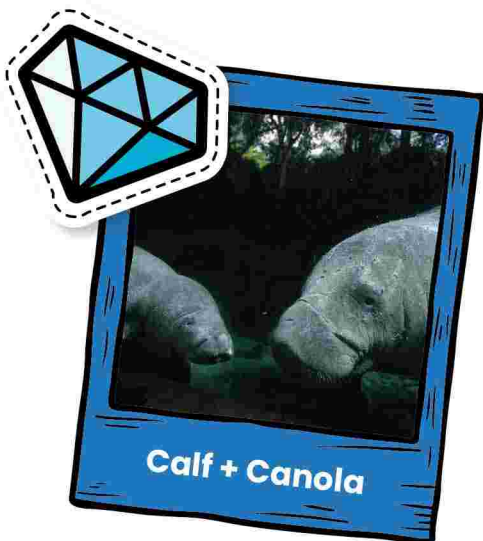

Born to mum Sri Nandong and dad Chawang on 12 May 2016, playful Neha is trained daily by her keepers to get her used to health check procedures. You can see Neha, Sri Nandong and the rest of the herd along the tram route.

Malayan Tapir

(Tram Trail, Night Safari)

Born on 28 June 2020, Bintang is the first male tapir calf at Night Safari in almost a decade! See if you can spot Bintang and mum Sakti from the tram.

Manatee

(Amazon Flooded Forest, River Wonders)

Our park icon Canola is a mum with the birth of her calf on 18 Aug 2020. Canola is a dedicated mum and can usually be seen with her baby.

Giant Anteater

(Amazon River Quest, River Wonders)

Estrella was born on 17 Jul 2019 to mum Iapura. Her name means 'star' in Spanish. Both mum and daughter can be spotted sniffing for insects along the Amazon River Quest boat ride.

Great Green Macaw

(Breeding & Research Centre, Jurong Bird Park)

Hatched for the first time in Jurong Bird Park, great green macaws are endangered in the wild due to habitat destruction and the illegal wildlife trade. Fly by our Breeding and Research Centre to see the chicks in the weaning room.

King Penguin

(Penguin Coast, Jurong Bird Park)

Our youngest king penguin chick Aidan hatched on 25 Nov 2019 to mum Sora. This little softie is shy, playful and loves to swim. Spot them at our indoor penguin exhibit.
